Specifically, and without regard to qualifications, males are excluded from position that involve providing direct care to female residents. In the 300 days immediately prior to the filing of his charge, and before, Plaintiff sought numerous such positions and was denied them solely because of his sex, male, in violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act as amended.

6. Additionally and in the alternative Plaintiff has opposed sexually discriminatory conduct which violates Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act by filing numerous charges of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and by filing a state court action for violation of his right to be free from discrimination on the basis of his sex. Defendant has denied Plaintiff equal employment opportunities in retaliation for those acts of opposition and participation by refusing to hire him for positions for which he is well qualified.
